Stiff Penalty for Lying Is Imposed on Germans

PARIS, July 20 (by mail).—Lying is punishable by death sometimes at the front. An eyewitness tell the follow-A German, north of Arras, came out of his trench calling to the French troopers opposite: "Comrades, England has made a cat's paw of you; Russia is beaten; Italy has been repulsed; you are lost. Give up the fight."

His speech delivered, he was given time to drop back into his trench, then, spontaneously, from the French trenches rose a perfect shower of hand grenades. Exposions followed like a rumble of thunder and before the echo died the Frenchmen were out of their trenches surging down on the Germans in an irresistible bayonet charge. Two minutes later the entire section of German trench was won, the enemy's dead lay in piles and the remainder were prisoners.
"That's what we think of your speech," said the French to the Germans. "Besides, the bad man gets folks who tell lies!"
